

1 or otherwise infamous cases, we should have it specifically 2 provided either in the declaration of rights or in our 3 judiciary article.

4 That is all I have to say for that, and there
5 has been no amendments offered.

6 I do not assume, or I assume that there is no objec-
7 tion to that being in our Constitution.

8 DELEGATE HENDERSON: May I ask a question?

9 DELEGATE JAMES: Will Delegate Weidemeyer yield
10 to a question?

11 DELEGATE WEIDEMEYER: Yes.

12 DELEGATE HENDERSON: Since Section 11, I understood
13 you to say, is not in our present Constitution, and since 14 there is a regular procedure whereby most of the cases 15 come up on information and not by indictment, would 16 there be any intention here to change that present practice
17 which has worked so well?

18 DELEGATE WEIDEMEYER: No, I do not think so because 19 this follows the wording of the Federal Constitution,
20 no person shall be held to answer for a capital 21 or otherwise infamous crime, unless on presentment or indictment of a grand jury, except in cases arising
